October 22, 2018 at 6:30 PM

Regular meeting was called to order at 6:30 pm by Kevin Dwyer, Vice Chairman.

Roll Call was called:

Present:	Bill Scriber, Chairman - excused	Kevin Dwyer
	Paul Gage	Paul Baxter
	Don Paul	Ben McDonald
		Lynn Wood, Clerk

Minutes for September 24, 2018 meeting.

Motion was made by Paul Gage to except the minutes and second by Ben McDonald.

All in Favor. Motion Carried.

Communications

- Codes minutes for September were passed around on property breakdown. Paul Gage had questions on posting a notice on trees when building new construction etc. John Dunham replied that yes it should be posted. A short discussion continued on this issue.
- Letter from Associations of Towns which was addressed to the Town Clerk but there is a registration form for 2018 winter planning and zoning schools. There is one held in Schoharie on November 10, 2018 and the closest one to us is in Minetto on November 17, 2018, those topics will be Ethics, Planning and ZBA relationship with the town board, Planning and Zoning basics and Planning and Zoning issues for wineries and distilleries. Anyone interested turn in form to the Town Clerk.
- Rural Futures and Town Topics.

Reports

- Paul Baxter – Tug Hill Commission celebrating its 45th Anniversary on Thursday, November 8, 2018. Tug Hill Commission sponsored the presentation by SUNY Oswego Professors and Students on lake effect snow and the presentation is currently on the Tug Hill web site at www.tughill.org.
- Codes Officer – Kevin Dwyer stated that all should have received an email on the August version and September was being passed around to view.

Unfinished Business

- Kevin Dwyer - There was an email from Bill Scriber explaining that Matt Johnson will be down in November to help with the rewrite on Zoning.

New Business

- Kevin Dwyer – No new business.
- Discussion on the Jeep trail park. Mike Mueller said nothing going on there. Paul Gage commented on why it has been quiet as it is too expensive.
- A discussion on the Biospheric building going up and other construction taking place there.
- July and August minutes were taken care of.

Agenda

Matt Johnson – Zoning

Next meeting November 25, 2018

Adjournment
